

2012 THEATRE EVENT

You are invited to join Shalom House as we raise funds necessary to continue providing shelter, food and supportive services to homeless women and children.

SATURDAY FEBRUARY 11, 2012

Reception and Silent Auction: Harrisburg University

Theater Performance: Whitaker Center for Science & the Arts

The well-known biblical tale of a young man with a very special gift and some very big adventures. When Joseph receives a wondrous colorful coat from his father, his jealous brothers take matters into their own hands. In Egypt, however, his fortunes take an unexpected turn for the better when he helps a troubled - but rockin' - Pharaoh. A delightful, eclectic pop score by Andrew Lloyd Webber highlights this timeless favorite for audiences of all ages. Don't miss it!
